

THIEF EMPLOYED TO CATCH THIEVES HELD FOR THEFT

Alfred Strausberg Held in
$2,000 Bail on Express
Company's Complaint.

A thief who was employed to catch thieves was himself arrested in the person of Alfred Strausberg at the behest of the Fuller Express Company, No. 133 Chambers street. He was arraigned today before Magistrate French in the Centre Street Police Court accused of stealing $151.25 from his employers and was held in $2,000 bail.

"Strausberg came to me two years ago and asked for work," said George P. Carroll, vice-president and general manager of the Fuller Express Company, when he took the witness stand today. "He told me he had a police record and knew every crook and fence in New York. I want to turn over a new leaf," said Strausberg. "I can't get work because of my record, but I can save you people a lot of money. I know how the packages are stolen from your wagons and I can stop the thefts if you will only employ me."

"I decided to give the man a chance to see what he could do. Numerous packages had been stolen from our wagons and we were unable to find the thieves," Strausberg said the packages were being stolen by men who disguised themselves as express drivers.

ROBBERIES CEASED AFTER HE WAS EMPLOYED.

"We let him follow a wagon and as a result a man who stole a package from one of our wagons was arrested and convicted. After Strausberg entered our employ, the robberies from the wagons became fewer, and finally ceased altogether. Strausberg was advanced to a position of foreman as well as a private detective, and did good work."

"What have you to say for yourself?" asked Magistrate French of the prisoner.

"Only this, Your Honor," answered Strausberg. "I lost that money and was afraid to go back to the company until I could make it good. I have handled more than $100,000 for my employers, and I've never touched a penny that did not belong to me nor told them a lie."

"After I received the money I met some friends. They asked me to have a drink. I went into a saloon with them. I drank several glasses of beer and then I went to sleep. When I woke up the money was gone, and it was late at night. I had collected the money early in the afternoon, and knew the office would be closed. I borrowed some money from a friend and went to Albany."

Strausberg's police record shows he served three terms in prison.

ALIMONY JAIL ORDERED FOR BOOKMAKER BEVERLY.

Court Orders Arrest for Failure to Pay Actress Wife $16,216
Overdue.

Justice Lehman in the Supreme Court today signed an order directing the Sheriff to arrest William Woodruff Beverly because of his failure to pay his former wife, Mildred Beverly, an actress, $16,216 back alimony. Justice Lehman's order provides that Beverly be imprisoned in Ludlow Street Jail until he settles in full with his ex-wife.

Mrs. Beverly divorced her husband Feb. 24, 1904, and was granted $5,000 a year alimony. Beverly failed to pay the alimony for over three years and on Dec. 15, last, she got an order directing him to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court. Beverly was served with the order in the lobby of the Hotel Rector.

Beverly was a bookmaker in the racing days. He is less prosperous now.

Mrs. Beverly has been prominent in Charles Frohman's companies for many years. She was with Marie Doro in "The Morals of Marcus" and was with William H. Crane in "Patience and the Boys." She was also with Thomas W. Ross in "An Everyday Man" in Chicago.

$10,000 FOR WORKMAN'S LIFE

Jury Holds N. Y. Central Culpable for Not Safeguarding Employees.

Elizabeth Traynor, an administratrix, against the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company has won a $10,000 verdict for the death of her husband, Philip, on June 12, 1911. The case was on trial before Justice Guy in the Supreme Court.

Alfred and Charles Steckler, who represented the widow, claimed that Traynor was killed by a train in the yard of the railroad while repairing the third rail, through failing to provide watchmen for laborers at work.

Physician Banishes Fat by New

"REDUCED MY WEIGHT 100 POUNDS."

On Nov. 1 Dr. F. Turner, a well known Philadelphia physician, was one of the fattest men in that great city. He weighed 284 pounds. His waist measured 44 inches and he wore a 17 1/2 collar. His health was miserable; he was weak and tired all the time; dull, heavy and stupid in mind; wasn't able to work to sleep nights, or to digest his food. He had just been refused life insurance because of his excessive weight. He was told that his very life was in grave danger, and that unless he could get rid of his fat he might drop dead at any moment.

He had previously tried all the methods of flesh reduction known to medical science, starvation diets, water, violent exercises, etc., but they had done more harm than good.

With practically a death sentence staring him in the face and a wife and family to support, Dr. Turner thought hard. He worked, experimented, studied on a plan entirely original and different from any he had used, and finally made a most wonderful scientific discovery by means of which he has actually reduced his weight 100 pounds, eating in strength and general health with every pound he lost.

On Jan. 1 of this year Dr. Turner weighed 184 pounds, his waist measured 37 1/2 inches and he wore a 15 1/2 collar. His health is perfect; he is as capable of hard work as at 25 years of age, and his mind is clear and buoyant.

Dr. Turner's wonderful success has amazed his friends and fellow physicians. His method is simple, yet thoroughly scientific. There are no medicines or drugs to be taken, nothing to wear, no physical culture or violent exercises, no Turkish baths, sweating, purging, starvation diets or weakening methods of any kind. On the contrary, the system, which any person can readily practice in their own home, without medical supervision of any kind, is designed not only to remove superfluous flesh at the average rate of about one pound a day, but to strengthen the entire body and benefit the general health right from the start.

Dr. Turner's remarkable discovery and experience created widespread attention from both physicians and the general public, and he has been fairly deluged with requests for personal treatment. Close friends have urged him to specialize in this particular branch of work where he could command large fees, but other business interests which occupy much of his time have decided him against it.

In answer, however, to the multitude of requests for information, and in order that all may have the benefits of the system it was his good fortune to discover that he had prepared a small booklet treating on his method and telling every flesh man and woman how they may accomplish the same healthy result, without the least danger or inconvenience. He has mailed these booklets without charge to those who have written him, and has a few hundred copies left, which he has agreed to distribute as long as they last among fleshly people sufficiently interested to send a 2-cent stamp for postage. The Doctor's present address is Dr. F. Turner, Clark Music Bldg., Suite 927A, Syracuse, N. Y., and any request for the booklet sent there will be given prompt attention.—Advt.
